I will come to read my Lectures on the life of John
Brown
in
the Standard
I
suppose be ready for some time
you would like
other if it
is good
in
tendency
&
chara.
ter
How
know our views are identical with those
the Americans
but
we should have objection
to circulate
books which show unlogically
or physical force
methods
narrative
old man's
in its truth
&
simplicity cannot fail
interesting
&
useful
his error
in method
we can understand
but
a different
thing
to ir-radicate recommendation
it

Mr
Chapman
generally
reads

My dear Mr. Chapman,
I write to ask
if you will send us three copies of the Life of John Brown which we see advertised in the Standard - Mr Childs will not I suppose be ready for some time you would like the other if it is good in tendency & chara-ter - How know our views are identical with those of the Americans but - we should have objection to circulate books which show unlogically or physical force methods - But the narrative of the good old man's life in its truth & simplicity cannot fail to be interesting & useful - his error in method we can understand - but it is a different thing to ir-radicate recommendation of it - Mr Chapman generally reads parcel to R. D. Webb with reports, after Anniversary, I've thought it might be possible to send these volumes & two copies of Peter Hill, without much trouble - I ordered one before but we should like two. We are glad Helper's book is making so great an excitement, it shows that the plain, plain facts tell. - We read the papers with intense interest, the Standard which came today & those last week are full of thrilling details I need not dwell on them - but they arouse our sympathy with all the sufferers & with you, our dear friends, who are living amid such scenes of trial & anxiety.

Will you put the three volumes in an envelope for Sarah Pugh? The
